

Municipal Separate Storm Sewer Systems (MS4) in the MACOG Region

Many communities in the MACOG region have been designated as MS4 communities under the Phase II National Pollution Discharge Elimination System general permitting process. Listed below are those cities, towns and counties that have been mandated to develop programs associated with the 6 Minimum Control Measures to manage stormwater runoff.

- Elkhart County
 - Bristol (Partners with the City of Elkhart)
 - Elkhart
 - Elkhart County
 - Goshen
- Marshall County
 - Plymouth
- Kosciusko County
 - Warsaw
- St. Joseph County
 - Bethel College \(Partners with the City of Mishawaka\)
 - Indiana University-South Bend
 - Ivy Tech State College (Partners with the City of South Bend)
 - Mishawaka
 - Osceola (Partners with St. Joseph County)
 - Roseland (Partners with St. Joseph County)
 - St. Joseph County
 - St. Mary's College
 - South Bend
 - University of Notre Dame

Go to the individual websites to learn more about their Stormwater Management Plans, requirements and education opportunities.

Michiana Stormwater Partnership \(MSP\)--MS4

\(Includes Bethel College, Ivy Tech Community College, Mishawaka, Osceola, Roseland, St. Joseph County, South Bend\)

St. Joseph County Soil and Water Conservation District

Stormwater Partnership of Greater Elkhart County--MS4

Includes Bristol, Elkhart, Goshen, Elkhart County\)